Heidelberg Catechism Question 1

Q1. What is your only comfort in life and in death?

A1. My only comfort in life and in death is that I am not my own, but belong— body and soul, in life and in death— to my faithful Savior, Jesus Christ. He has fully paid for all my sins with his precious blood, and has set me free from the tyranny of the devil.

He also watches over me in such a way that not a hair can fall from my head without the will of my Father in heaven; in fact, all things must work together for my salvation.

Because I belong to him, Christ, by his Holy Spirit, also assures me of eternal life and makes me wholeheartedly willing and ready from now on to live for him.

ALL: Light dawns in the darkness for the upright; he is gracious, merciful, and righteous.

Leader: For the righteous will never be moved; he will be remembered forever.

Reading of The Law

Deuteronomy 6:4-9

Corporate Prayer of Confession

Our Lord and God, we thank you for your abundant mercy. You are so very patient with us. Don't let us mistake your patience with us for your approval of our sin. Through your Holy Spirit, help us to say no to sin and to faithfully follow you.

Grant us the gift of repentance again and again, Lord, for we are helpless without your grace and mercy. Father, when we drift, bring us back to you. When we grow cold towards you, warm our hearts with a renewed sense of your glory. Wake us from our spiritual sleepiness and renew a right spirit within us. Restore to us the joy of your salvation. Amen.

Silent Prayer

O God, the strength of all them that put their trust in You, mercifully accept our prayers; and because through the weakness of our mortal nature we can do no good thing without You, grant us the help of Your grace, that we, steadfastly believing in Your Son Jesus Christ, and loving one another as He has given us commandment, may please You, both in will and deed; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen
